We just had to share with you our latest great finds and must-haves for the winter.

Jeryl E. Spear, Executive Editor

China Glaze Evening Seduction

“I love the way this nearly black, raisin polish contrasts with my pale skin. It also applies true-to-color on the first coat, and resists chipping for up to two weeks.”

Pravana Artificial Hair Color Extractor System

“I can drastically change my haircolor on a whim—and then change it back! Combined with heat, the products break down dye molecules sans damage.”

A.R.T. Salon in a Bag

“Bye-bye check-in! Finally, I can pack every travel-size hot tool in one bag. Bonuses include a universal outlet adapter and extra pockets for brushes and combs.”

Karie L. Frost, Fashion Editor

Your Name Professional Brands Micro-Bubble Lipstick in Flamingo

“The wow-factor of this hot pink literally stops people in their tracks—to ask me what lipstick I’m wearing!”

Matrix Biolage fortethérapie Strengthening Conditioner

“My hair’s constant chemical romance means that my strands need all the TLC they can get. This is lightweight and ultra-nourishing, and its scent reminds me of childhood trips to the salon.”

Enjoy Hair & Skin Treatment Oil

“Ask the other editors: I rave about this product. It quenches any parched areas without creating a greasy residue or weighing down strands. Any leftover oil I rub onto my elbows!”

Alyson Osterman, Associate Editor

TIGI S-factor Balance Booster

“I have dry strands—great for prolonging a blow-out, but they can end up looking dull. This itty-bitty beauty gem simultaneously smooths and revitalizes my thirsty tresses!”

Mirabella Beauty Cosmetics Eye Definer in Smoke

“This eyeliner is neither too soft nor too hard, and glides on perfectly. I love a dark, dramatic eye for winter, so the black shade is my fave.”

Dermologica Soothing Eye Make-Up Remover

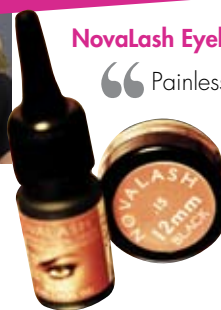

“My skin is supersensitive! This remover quickly wipes away eye makeup without irritation.”

Amy Dodds, Managing Editor

Novalash Eyelash Extensions

“Painless, fast and fabulous—my eyes have never looked so wide and bright. I seriously can’t stop staring in the mirror!”

Oribe Signature Shampoo and Conditioner

“This duo is just the thing for those times when I need a touch of indulgence—which is to say nearly every morning.”

Youngblood Mineral Cosmetics Pressed Individual Eyeshadow in Zen

“Perfectly enhancing my green eyes, the sparkly shadow goes on smoothly and lasts all day.”
